

SHIFTING PATTERNS

Christopher Alexander and the Eishin Campus

Edited by Eva Guttman,
Gabriele Kaiser, Claudia Mazanek

11

Eva Guttmann, Gabriele Kaiser

“What we see—and what we understand”

22

Ernst Beneder

Tokyo, 1984

40

Walter Rupprechter

On the Cultural Ambiguity of the Eishin Campus

50

Hisae Hosoi

“Sweet Home in My Heart”

124

Hajo Neis (Conversation)

Shifting Values in Architecture and Urban Design

143

Christian Kühn

The Pattern Language for the Eishin Campus

151

Ida Pirstinger

Urban Order and the Ambivalence of the Patterns

161

Norihito Nakatani

Why Recall Christopher Alexander?

166

Takaharu Tezuka (Conversation)

“Sometimes inconvenience is luxury.”